Begin Again and Have Fun!!

Note: Unfortunately, in order to maintain phrasing (and so you don't look stupid on the last two counts) there is a tag. It is done twice and occurs after the third wall and after the sixth wall.

Tag

- 1 - 4 Same as the first four counts of the Dance.
- 5 - 6 Step Right forward; Hold.
- 7 - 8 Kick Left across the Right; Step Left to Left side (shoulder width apart).
- 9 & 10 Kick Right forward; Step Right next to Left; Touch Left toe to Left side.
- 11 & 12 Kick Left forward; Step Left next to Right; Touch Right toe to Right side.
- 13 & 14 Shuffle Forward (Step Right Forward, Step Left next to Right, Step Right Forward).
- 15 & 16 Step Left foot forward; & Pivot 1/2 turn to the Right; Pivot 1/2 turn to the Left (weight on ends on the Right).
- 17 & 18 Step Left Back; Step Right Back; Step Left Back.
- 19 - 20 Step Back with Right foot into 1/4 turn to the Right; Drag the Left foot towards the Right.

Start the dance again.

*Note (when/how to do the tag): On the third wall, finish the dance completely then do the tag just as it is described above, then start the dance again. On the sixth wall, drop the last two counts of the dance...start the tag right after you bring your arms to your sides. Then (a tag within a tag?), the last two counts of the tag becomes four counts. Still step with the right on 19, then drag for three counts. Then start the dance again. No more tags after that.....

Note: On the first wall, do not do the arms on the last two counts of the dance as you will look extremely ridiculous...it doesn't fit with the music there...instead, just bounce or come up with your own two counts (my brain is still fried from the rest of the dance).

Choreographer's Note: What can I say? I still have 1/2 a page to fill up. No, seriously. This dance is fun to do once you have it down...it's not even that hard. Give it a try, I think you'll like it. .
